have made Use of this Country STEEL, in various Ways,
some of which we found very good, and a great Deal otherwise.

us have tried it in the very best of edged Tools, and do find,
that it is equal, if not superior, to any imported from ENGLAND.

TO BE SOLD, by PUBLIC AUCTION,

On WEDNESDAY the THIRD of JANUARY next, if a fair

o'clock in the forenoon precisely, on the spot:

THE PLANTATION ON

CHARLES-TOWN NECK, formerly belonging to George Marshall, deceased, and at present unto the subscriber, about three miles distant from the said town, containing 150 acres of land (exclusive of marsh) as good in quality, as any in that neighbourhood;
bounding northward on land of Sarah Ballard; eastward on the high road; southward on land of William Bampfild;
and westward on Ashley-River: about one half of which plantation is cleared, and the whole, as well as such parts thereof, as have been cultivated, are enclosed by ditches, near six feet wide, and five feet deep, and substantial fences.

There is a commodious dwelling house thereon, containing six large rooms, besides garrets, lathed and plastered, with a piazza, to the southward, 64 feet long, and 10 feet wide, and another to the eastward, the same width, and 44 feet long; which has been lately new shingled, and completely repaired, and painted; and a kitchen and over-see's house, united under one roof, just erected, at a considerable expence: also a plain, but profitable garden: and the buildings are placed in an airy, pleasant, and healthy situation, on the summit of a hill, from whence the prospect, up and down Ashley-River, is both agreeable and extensive.

The advantages to be derived from the employment of a few hands, on the above plantation, to attend and supply the Charles-Town market, are obvious; and those advantages may be greatly improved, as there is a landing belonging thereto, adjacent to the house, and accessible to a boat of 50 barrels; whereby an opportunity will be afforded, to the planter, of a ready communication, by water, with his plantation more remote, and facilitate the conveyance of stock, &c. from one, to the other: and also another landing, and an eminence, on the south-west end of the tract, fronting the river, which, with the particular situation of the wood and cleared land, render the above plantation capable of division, into two equal parts.

A L S O,

At the same time and place, will be sold,
ABOUT TWENTY YOUNG VALU-ABLE SLAVES, among whom are three mowers; a compleat ploughman; a tolerable good butcher, sawyer and squarer, who has been also employed four years at the business of a shipwright; a good boatman, who is well acquainted with the rivers to the southward, as far as Savannah, in Georgia, and has a pretty good notion of gardening: in the purchase of which slaves, the utmost care and attention have been shewn to their characters, in point of honesty and sobriety, as well as ability.

A L S O,

THIRTEEN HEAD OF CATTLE, among which are 10 cows, one whereof a remarkable fine one, that has been several years used to the town: a flock of sheep, lately imported from the northward; and hogs: a chaife not much the worse for wear; several good chair horses: a small sprightly riding horse, suitable for a boy of 10 or 12 years of age: a light, handy, new cart; cart-horses; and a variety of plantation tools and utensils, that have been little used.

The purchaser or purchasers of any part of the premises, to the amount of 1000l. and upwards, may have one, two, or more years credit, paying interest, and giving approved security, if required: and if under 1000l. yet exceeding 100l.
credit will be given to the first of March next, paying interest, and giving security, as above: but for all sums under 100l. or to that amount, the cash will be required: and until these conditions are complied with and fulfilled, the property of nothing is to be altered.

Any person inclinable, in the mean time, to purchase the whole, or any part of the premises, at private sale; or to lease the aforesaid plantation, for a term, not less than three years, under proper restrictions, may treat with

L O N D O N, AUGUST 25.

FRIDAY night there was a numerous and respectable meeting of the electors of Westminster, at the Globe Tavern in the Strand, when the draft of a petition to his Majesty was read, and unanimously approved of. It is confined to the cafe of Middlefex; and the prayer is said to consist of a request, that his Majesty would be graciously pleased to dissolve this parliament, and call another as soon as possible. One of the company took notice of a resolution in the Commons Journals, Vol. 11, P. 767, Anno 1701. 14 Will. III. which is in these words: "Resolved,
" That it is the UNDoubted RIGHT of the People of En" gland to petition or address the King, for the calling, sitting,
" or dissolving of parliaments, and for the redressing of grie" vances."

And on Saturday the following was distributed as a hand-bill among the electors of Westminster.

" To the worthy independent Electors of the City and Liberty of Westminster.

" GENTLEMEN,
" You have been called on by public advertisements to meet in Westminster-Hall, on Tuesday next, the 29th instant, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of considering on a petition to his Majesty on the present alarming state of the constitution. Every method has been taken, and will be taken by mean suggestions, false representations, and unfair and undue influence, to render this meeting abortive. You are told that you will not be joined by the feble or spurious, that you will have no men of consequence among you, and that not one half of the electors of Westminster will sign such petition. BE NOT DE-CEIVED; it is by such insinuations the enemies to our King and country mean to effect their purpose, and to keep you at home, by persuading you that your neighbour will not attend. DISAP-POINT THEIR WICKED ENDEAVOURS—every honest man will be with you, and remember that the honest man is feble, feble, and great. Attend this meeting, weigh well the business of it, and then obey the dictates of honour, conscience, and love of your country, her gracious King, laws, and liberties."

Immediately after the Surry petition had been presented to the King on Thursday, a Right Honourable Paymaster ridiculed the petition in the Drawing-room, and enquired of a certain popular Baronet, the representative of a neighbouring borough, what were the objects of it? The latter told him, it was confined to one point, but complained of pernicious counsellors, adding at the same time, that he knew best whether he was included in that number. The Paymaster said aloud, that a friend of his had gone to the place in Southwark, where the petition was advertised to be signed, but could see only three skins of parchment, without any other writing on them but names, and was told the petition itself was in another part of the county, so that people signed without knowing for what. The Baronet told him, his friend had misinformed him; there never had been but one skin in Southwark, and on that the petition was most certainly written. The Paymaster persisted in the charge, as he was told so by a person of credit, a friend of his. On which the Baronet told him, he had been misled, and that his friend, whenever he was,
would not to his, the Baronet's face, assert so great a falsehood;
and for the Paymaster's further satisfaction, referred him to the petition just delivered in, which consisted of five skins of parchment, on each of which he might see the petition entered at length. The paymaster was silenced by this last argument, and the whole circle of auditors, who were numerous, were pleased with the spirited manner in which the Baronet resisted the rough attack of the Paymaster. It is hoped that no attempt is ever made by similar misrepresentations to impose on the royal ear, by false accounts of the conduct and sense of the people.

His Majesty's ship the Boston, of 32 guns, at Portsmouth, is put into commission, and Sir Thomas Adams, Bart. is appointed to command her.

We hear from Edinburgh, that a private banker has, a few days ago, stopped payment there for between sixty and seventy thousand pounds.

It is said that when the D---- of G----- was lately at Stowe, he made several overtures for an accommodation to a noble Earl, but as they were all confined to particular objects, without an eye to general grievances, they were rejected.

General Paoli's baggage, which has been for some time expected, arrived last week in the river; it came over in the ship that brought Lord Exeter from Leghorn.

August 31. Yesterday the Earl of Egmont attended the levee at St. James's, and had a conference with his Majesty, from whence it is conjectured that his Lordship will soon be appointed to some post in the administration.

We have the pleasure to assure the public, that there will most certainly be a petition from the large and opulent county of York; notwithstanding all that has been said and attempted to the contrary.

The Westminster petition is greatly approved of by all who have read it. The stile of it is spirited and nervous; and as the axe is therein laid to the root of the tree, it is generally believed that it will be considered as a laudable example to other cities and boroughs, at this truly alarming period; and have a very proper effect at -----.

The signing of the petition by the electors, goes on briskly;
and it is not doubted, but that in a week or ten days, it will be signed by a great majority of them, notwithstanding all the influence of the court, and the ministers, to prevent it.

We hear that the livery of London intend on Michaelmas day to petition his Majesty for the dissolution of the present parliament.
Five hundred guineas were laid yesterday to four hundred that the parliament will be dissolved before Christmas.

On Monday the 4th of September will be held, by adjournment, at the White-Heart at Crawley, a meeting of the gentlemen of the Western division of the county of Sussex, in order to frame a petition to the Throne, for redress of grievances, especially that of the violated right of election: Dr. Dugate and Mr.
Hutchinson in their respective chairs.

It is now said, that the example of the city of London, which was usually followed by most of the counties and boroughs, with respect to addresses and petitions, has lost its influence; that the Surry petition gives more satisfaction to the real friends of liberty than any that has hitherto been presented, and that it will be the standard generally followed all over the country of England.

The high-sheriff of the county of Somerset has summoned
the freeholders of that county, to meet at the Swan-Inn in Wells, on Wednesday the 3th of October next, to consider, in the present exigency of public affairs, of such measures as may be conducive to the happiness and welfare of this country.

Last Tuesday died in Welbank-street, Cavendish-square, aged 97, Edmund Hoyle, Esq; well known in the polite world for writing the celebrated treatise on the games of whist, quadrille, piquet, chess, and back-gammon, which he lived to pass through no less than thirteen editions.

The French from a calculation lately made, reckon in the Island of Corfica, 57 pieves or ecclesiastical districts, 10 jurisdictions, 26,136 houses with chimnies, 32,322 men able to bear arms, and 150,680 souls in all.

They write from Petersburg, that major-general Tottleben is to act in concert with Salamon, Prince of Imeritz, and with Heraclius of Georgia, who have put themselves under the protection of the Empress, and offered her majesty their services against the Turks.

They write from Switzerland, that during the troubles, which almost proved the destruction of the little republic of Geneva, France in order to oblige the burghers to submit to the conditions proposed to them, converted the town of Verfoy, situate upon the borders, into a city, which they called by the name of the New Choiseul, erected magazines there, and took some other measures which threatened the ruin of the trade of the Genevans. Since the tranquility of that republic has been restored, the Helvetic body, and particularly the Canton of Zurich, applied to the court of Versailles to restore Verfoy to the situation it was in before the late troubles, and was promised redress, but nothing was ever done in this affair: since that, upon the repeated complaints of the Genevans, fresh remonstrances have been made upon this subject to the Marquis de Chateauf, ambassador from France to the Helvetic body, but to no purpose, that minister having told them that he did not suppose his court would make any alteration in this affair, or that it could have been at so much expence at Verfoy for nothing: since which the Helvetic body has again applied to his most Christian majesty to comply with his promise and put things upon the old footing, or they should be under a necessity of recalling all the Swiss in the service of France. This measure may possibly prove more effectual than all the representations that have gone before it.

By letters from Paris we learn, that the count de Vaux is taking every method in his power to make the island of Corfica an advantageous acquisition to the court of France. For this purpose several persons well skilled in agriculture, have been sent for from Provence, and other parts, in order to examine the soil, and determine what is likely to be the most profitable produce of the island; and great numbers of manufacturers are preparing to embark from divers parts of France, in order to establish and improve the different branches of commerce in the same island.

It is reported that some deputies from the Dutch East-India company are daily expected in London, to confer on business of great importance, with the directors of the English East-India company.

A letter from a correspondent at Dieppe, in France, brings the following accurate list of the French fleet, viz. Royal Louis 116 guns, Bretagne 110, Ville de Paris 90; Orient, Languedoc, Tonnant, Duc de Burgoyne, and St. Esprit, of 80 guns each; Robuste, Intrepide, Six-Corps, Diligent, Glorieux, Defenseur, Palmier, Zodiaque, Diademe, Magnifique, Minotaure, Citoyen, Sceptre, Protecteur, Couronne, Souverain, Guerrier, Hechor, Zele, Burgoyne, Marcellus, Conquerant, and Lefard, of 74 guns each; Northumberland, and Dauphin Royal, of 70 guns each; Vengeur, Provence, Lyon, Triton, Sage, Vaillant, Content, Altier, Fantaisie, Aventurier, Hazard, Rencontre, Hardy, Bizarre, Veille, Prothee, Altif, Zephir, Brillant, Solitaire, Union, Articien, and St. Michel, of 64 guns each; Bourdelois, Ferme, Utile, Flamant, Amphion, Sagittaire, Fier, and the Hippopotam, of 50 guns each; five others are on the stocks at Rochfort. Frigates, viz. Terpsichore of 40 guns, Diligent and Liscome, of 32 guns each; Algrette, Danae, Folle, Malicieuse, Heroine, and Thetis, of 30 guns each; Fortune, and Mignone, of 28 guns each; Precieuse, Chimere, Pleyade, Sultane, Etourdie, and Engageante, of 26 guns each; Topaze, and Gracieuse, of 24 guns each; Biche, and Grammont, of 22 guns each; St. Esprit, of 20; Calypso, Idis, and Jilbde, of 16 guns each. Chasse, viz. Seduisant, Singe, Renard, Cameleon, and Requir, of 20 guns each; Hyrondeile Berque of 18; Serpent of 16; and Revanche of 12 guns. At the Isle de Bourbon there are seven of the line, but they are called the East-India company's ships, as in fact they are; however, they are to every intent and purpose men of war: one of the same force, taken the last war, is now in the service, the Belle-Ile, and mounts 64 guns.

It is confidently reported, that the three gentlemen at the head of the law, the army, and the navy, have each of them assured a certain great patriotic Earl, of their entire attachment to his lordship's opinions on public affairs, and are ready to co-operate in any measures, his lordship shall propose whenever he pleases to step forth again.

A correspondent says, the prodigious increase of the French navy is truly alarming, and should instigate the great to lay aside contentions and party squabbles, and unite in taking care of the most essential interests and security of the nation, which demand a powerful navy ever well kept up and ready to defeat the attempts of our artful and natural enemy.

On Tuesday last died at Bath the right hon. William Villiers, Earl of Jersey, Viscount Villiers of Darford, and Baron of Hoo, and one of his Majesty's most honourable privy council. His Lordship is succeeded by his honourable surviving son the right hon. George Bussy viscount Villiers, now Earl of Jersey, &c. member in the present parliament for Dover, vice-chamberlain of his Majesty's household, and a privy councillor.

Yesterday after the breaking up of the levee at St. James's, Lord Barrington, secretary at war, had a conference for near an hour with his Majesty.

SEPTEMBER 2. The many petitions now forming in the several counties of the kingdom have so greatly alarmed the Ministry, that their private conferences were never known to be so frequent.

We hear that the gentlemen applied to, to deliver the Westminster petition to his Majesty, very readily complied with the request, and that it will be presented next week.

SEPTEMBER 5. Sunday evening his Royal Highness the Duke of Gloucester arrived at his house in Grosvenor-street, in perfect health, from his tour through different parts of Germany, yesterday he waited on her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales, at Charlton-house, where he dined, as did his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland.

Sunday morning the Rippon man of war, with Governor Bernard on board, arrived at Portsmouth from Boston.

We are told that a noble Lord who was supposed to have retired from public affairs, has, within these few days, laid a plan before a great Personage, which it is imagined, will be productive of many salutary effects.

By a gentleman just returned from Paris, we are informed, that a treaty of importance is on foot between the Courts of Vienna and France.

Many contracts are daily-making for a number of artificers, in various branches, to go to New-England, which greatly alarms the people concerned in that trade.

Yesterday a Sheriff's Officer and his follower were tried at the Sessions at Guildhall, and found guilty, but did not receive sentence, for assaulting a Printer's wife, in Noble-street, by forcing their way into his house.

Extract of a Letter from Paris, August 25.

"On the 19th instant, one of the Gentlemen belonging to the Chamber of Enquiry having signified to the Parliament the Arrest of the Council, which suspends the exclusive privilege of the East-India Company, and gives leave to all the King's subjects to trade wherever the Company used to do, the Parliament appointed Commissioners, who met the 21st instant, to hear and examine the Syndics, Directors, and Deputies, who were nominated at the Assembly held the 14th of May last, and likewise the Deputies of Commerce residing at Paris, in order upon the report of the said Commissioners to make such regulations as shall be thought proper. As soon as this meeting broke up, the Syndics, Directors, &c. were ordered to the Great Chamber, where they were interrogated by the Presidents, Counsellors, &c. and as soon as they had answered the several questions that were put to them they were ordered to withdraw. The Deputies of Commerce &c. examined in the same manner. A report of these proceedings being made next day to the Chambers assembled, the Parliament in consequence thereof, came to a resolution to make remonstrances to the King, and appointed Commissioners to draw up the articles, who immediately met for that purpose."

Extract of a Letter from Paris, August 17.

"If we may depend on a Letter from L'Orient of the 10th of this Month, it is certain that the English Spy, who calls himself Lord Gordon, wanted to burn the Port and Town of Brest; for it seems, the day after he was arrested, they took a great number of barques, laden with wood and charcoal, which came along the coast for ten leagues, in order to set fire to different parts; and by this means, adds the Letter, discovery was made of an infinite number of accomplices, dispersed at Paris, Rochfort, Rochelle, St. Malo, and, in short, in almost every Town of France."

SEPTEMBER 8. Yesterday their Royal Highnesses the Dukes of Gloucester and Cumberland, were both at Court, the former received the compliments of the Nobility, on his safe return from his late continental tour through different parts of Germany.

We are credibly informed, that Paschal Paoli, the late Corsican General, on his arrival in Town, will reside at the Earl of Pembroke's house, in Privy-Gardens.

The Westminster Petition has been carried about into different Parishes throughout the said city, and has been signed by a great number of the inhabitants, but there is no time yet fixed for presenting the same to his Majesty.

On Wednesday evening the Hon. Col. Pomeroy arrived in town from his Regiment in North-America, and was yesterday at Court.

Wednesday several Gentlemen, Agents for the American Colonies, waited on some of the great Officers of State, on affairs of importance relative to North-America.

It is said that a meeting of the principal Merchants trading to North-America, will be held in a few days, to consider on a proper application to Government, relative to the present stagnation of trade, which must soon produce the most destructive consequences, if not timely remedied.

It is reported, that the total suppression of our Admiralty-courts in the American colonies will soon take place.

Letters from Stockholm, of the 20th ult. advise, that the unexpected demand lately made by a Turk, who arrived in that city the beginning of the same month from Constantinople, reclaiming on the part of the Porte, the sums advanced there to the late Charles XII. of Sweden, at the time he resided at Bender, has occasioned much consternation to the King and States of Sweden, as the present condition of their finances admit not conveniently of complying with the demand; and a refusal may probably occasion a rupture between the Court of Stockholm and the Porte; which some people suppose is clearly intended by the latter.

Letters from Berlin mention, that considerable quantities of warlike stores and ammunition had lately been sent to Magdeburgh, and that his Prussian Majesty had given orders for a considerable body of his troops to be in readiness to march on the first notice.

They write from Hamburg, that the present disputes between England and her Colonies had effectually put a stop to the farther migration of Foreigners to settle in North-America.

They write from Toulon, that an armament is fitting out there, to chastise the insolence of the Moors at Larache, whose corsairs had lately taken five French vessels in the Mediterranean.

CORRE, August 24. Monday his Majesty's 34th regiment of foot, commanded by Lord Cavendish, arrived on board the Pennsylvania Farmer, Capt. Blair, from Philadelphia, and the troops are arrived in town. Yesterday another vessel arrived at Cove with troops from Philadelphia.

PARIS, July 18. Several considerable bankruptcies are talked of in the principal cities of this kingdom. The most capital is that of the Marquis Roux-de-Corfe, a merchant of Marseilles, whose affairs were so very considerable, that in the last dispute between England and this kingdom, he made a particular declaration of war in his own name against the English. His failure is computed to be for 20,000,000 of livres, which is 1,125,000l. sterling.

PARIS, August 18. A vessel, which arrived at Havre a few days ago from St. Domingo, in the dead of the night landed several passengers, who were received by exempts, that were waiting in post-chaises to receive them with some detachment of Marsehausse; the next day the vessel disappeared, and no person was to be found that came from on board her. This mystery, joined to the silence of administration on the event, makes it conjectured, that the prisoners were some seditious people from St. Domingo, whom the Governor had thought proper to secure in that manner; and some politicians carry their suspicions so far, as to imagine the entire council of the Cape.

PARIS, August 21. The Sieur Messieur, astronomer to the navy, made a discovery of a new comet the 8th inst. about eleven o'clock at night. This is the tenth comet that this astronomer has discovered within these ten years. It appeared in the constellation of the Ram, between 24th, 29th, and 31st stars of that constellation, according to the British catalogue. In the night of the 14th instant, it was seen very distinctly with the naked eye; and its tail appeared to be about six degrees in length.

It is reported that the English have offered to restore Canada, if the King of France will give up his possessions in the East-Indies, and prohibit that commerce to his subjects.

KALISH, August 4. The Tartars, already weary of the war, have separated from the Turkish army, in order to return to their own country.

RATISBON, August 9. They write from Augsburgh, that on the 4th instant, at four o'clock in the afternoon, a violent earthquake happened there which lasted 17 minutes. At Eichstedt the shock unroofed most of the houses, and broke down the thickest walls; and it is assured that the effects of it were still more violent at Gunstberg, Ulm, and other places towards the north.

PETERSBURG, July 28. A courier arrived here the 24th instant with the news that the Turks had been driven out of their retrenchments before Choczim, and that prince Gallitzin was making dispositions to besiege the place.

July 29. According to advices from the army of general count de Roumianzow, whose camp is at Sambour, in the deserts near the river Bog, his advanced corps has destroyed a Turkish flotilla, composed of twenty ships laden with artillery; four of which were sunk with upwards of 200 men, and the rest dispersed.

WARSAW, August 5. Two days ago we received a letter from the Russian army, dated the 25th ult. which advises, that the city of Choczim is not yet taken, because the Russians, being sure that it cannot hold out long, are unwilling to sacrifice a number of men to no good purpose. The garrison is in want of subsistence, and water is cut off from them by a battery commanded by general Rennenkampf. The sallies made by the Turks have been unsuccessful; they have driven out of the fort a great number of horses and other cattle, not having provender for them.

BRUSSELS, August 14. The Empress Queen has published an ordinance, by which she permits the exportation of arms of all sorts, &c. and also of gunpowder, cannon, and musket balls, and saltpetre from the Austrian Netherlands to foreign countries, free of all duties.

HAGUE, August 22. The French ambassador at this court has presented a memorial to the following purport: "The undersigned has the honour to communicate to your High Mightinesses, by order of the King his master, that in consequence of the treaty, concluded with the republic of Genoa, the 15th of May 1768, by which that republic cedes to France, the entire Sovereignty of Corfica, his Majesty, after having driven out the late rebels to the said republic, took possession of that island, and united it to the other dominions of his crown, that all the ports thereof would for the future be under the same government as that of France, and under the same regulations in respect to trade with foreign powers, and that it is the King's orders that that island shall contribute as much as possible to increase the union and mutual service between France and Holland. After these assurances, his Majesty flatters himself that their High Mightinesses, in case any ships should for the future appear under Corsican colours, will look upon them as pirates, and not suffer them to take refuge in the ports of the republic; the regard that Sovereigns mutually owe to each other, not permitting them to grant to rebels an asylum in their dominions."

PHILADELPHIA, October 12.
Extract of a Letter from Newbern, in North-Carolina, dated September 11, 1769.

"I have just time to write you by Captain Snow, bound to New-York, whose Vessel miraculously escaped Destruction. The Devastation and Confusion in Newbern, cannot be described as it really is. From Mr. Wilton's Houses (they included) round to James Cook's Stores, (they also included) is one entire Heap of Ruins, owing to the foundation of Water, and violent North-east Wind, which happened the Seventh Instant. John Smith's Dwelling-house and Stores are quite swept away, and his Goods entirely lost; Samuel Cornell's Dwelling-house beat to Pieces; Heritage's large Stores destroyed, and all the Goods in them; Davis's House, and Printing-Office, shared the same Fate; and but little Property, together with your Houses, are also demolished; in short, there is not a front-house standing in Newbern. Some Persons who, on the Sixth Instant, had a comfortable Living, on the Seventh, about Twelve o'clock at Night, were deprived of even Clothes to cover them, or Bread to eat. The whole Country, so far as we have yet had Intelligence, is one continued Scene of Distress. The Corn levelled to the Ground. Fruit Trees torn up by the Roots. Many Houses blown down. The Oak Trees almost ruined. And sundry Persons lost their Lives, four of whom were buried here Yesterday. It happened very unlucky for us; for we have not only lost our Dry Goods, &c. but also a considerable Sum in Commodities, such as Oil, Bees-wax, Tallow, Skins, Turpentine, Pitch, and a large Quantity of Staves and Heading; all which were Remittances, ready for a Market; but, as it was the Hand of Providence, we must submit, since Numbers in this Town, who were in good Circumstances, are now entirely ruined. I have not time to say any more, being employed in assisting to clear our Streets of the Wrecks of Houses, &c. and now and then pick up some small Remnants of Goods. Our Books, Bonds and Notes, are saved, but every Thing else gone. Mr. Papa's Wife and Child, and Mr. John Johnston's Wife and Child, were drowned in the Street. Among other Goods that were found after the Storm, was a Hoghead of Rum, which was carried about two Miles from the Town."

PHILADELPHIA, October 26.

Gentlemen, Burlington, October 20, 1769.
BY Order of the House of Representatives, now sitting at this Place, I inclose you a Resolve, passed on the 18th Instant, as a Testimony of their Approbation of your Conduct.

I am, Gentlemen,
Your most obedient humble Servant,
CORTLAND SKINNER, Speaker of the Assembly of New-Jersey.

To the Committee of Merchants, Philadelphia.

New-Jersey House of Assembly, Wednesday, October 18.

Upon Motion made, Resolved, N. C. D.

THAT the Thanks of this House be given to the Merchants and Traders of this Colony, and of the Colonies of New-York and Pennsylvania, for their disinterested and public-spirited Conduct, in withholding their Importation of British Merchandise, until certain Acts of Parliament, laying Restrictions on American Commerce, for the express Purpose of raising a Revenue in America, be repealed; and that Mr. Speaker be directed to write to the respective Committees of Merchants in said Colonies, transmitting them a Copy of this Resolve.

A true Copy,
RICHARD SMITH, Clerk of Assembly."

NEW-YORK, October 12.

Extract of a Letter from Newbern, in North-Carolina, Sept. 24.

"Since mine to you per Captain Snow, I have been a great Sufferer by a violent Hurricane, which began here on Thursday, the 7th Instant, about 6 o'clock in the Evening, the Wind at N. E. and so continued till 9 or 10, then shifted to S. E. and about 2 in the Morning, the Tide was 10 or 12 Feet above its usual Height; about this Time the Wind shifted to S. W. which occasioned the Tide to fall, or it would have destroyed this Town, which is already near effected. Sixty odd Houses are totally destroyed, and a large Number of others much damaged, 8 large Wharfs are tore to Pieces, 5 white and 2 black People were drowned, and many others much bruised in the Ruins of the fallen Houses. The following Vessels were drove from their Anchors into the Woods on high Land, viz. Sloop Diamond, Remembrance Simmons, belonging to Rhode-Island; Sloop Sydney, John Oliver, and Brig Sally and Botley, Jonathan Hibbs, Newbern; Sloop Deborah, John Pindar, and Charming Sally, Obadiah Yarbrough, belonging to J. Smith, at Newbern; Sloop Sally, Jesse Hunt, New-York; Sloop Polly, Jonathan Spinnage, Elizabeth-Town; Snow Fitzherbert, Stephen Williams, Barbados; Sloop Tryal, William Woolcot, New-London; Schooner Lucitania, Jeremiah Havens, Calco-Bay; Snow Cumberland, Samuel Spencer, Guilford, in Connecticut; also a Number of small Vessels, of 16 or 20 Tons each. The Amount of the Damage sustained by this Town in the late Storm, is estimated at 40 or 50,000l.

The Loss to this Town is not the only one that will affect this Province, for the Crops of Corn are entirely ruined, many Houses down, and Lives lost in the Country, occasioned by their Fall; and we have just received Information, that many Vessels foundered at their Anchors in Ocracock Road, and others stranded on the Sea Shore, not one Soul of any of them left to tell who or what they were.

To describe the Horrors of this Hurricane is beyond the Art of my Pen, therefore must leave it to you, to form an Imagination of so terrible a Night. As you will expect some Account of my Loss in this Calamity, I now proceed to give you a summary Account of it; two Sloops and their Cargoes of near 500l. each, just arrived from Jamaica and Nevis; my Wharfs, Warehouse, its Contents of Corn, Salt, Sugar, &c. my dry Goods Store totally gone, with about 800l. Sterling of Goods in it; my Books, Bonds, Notes, Papers, Paper Money (Specie, some Part of which I found again) together with several other Houses, and their Contents, of considerable Value; my Dwelling-house, and Mr. Cornell's, which joins it, stood on a stone Wall, 22 Inches thick, and near 9 Feet from the Surface of the Earth, were almost washed down, the lower Floors of both fell in, the other Parts are miraculously standing, on Parts of the Cellar Wall, and all the Furniture of both Houses, that were in the lower Floors, are broke to Pieces, and washed away, as also many others. At one in the Morning, the Water was 18 Inches on my lower Floor. I broke through into Mr. Cornell's Garret, with my Wife and three Children; three of Mr. Cornell's youngest Daughters, and many others in both Families, amounting in the whole to 28 Souls, escaped out of Mr. Cornell's Back-door, with the Children on our Shoulders, and the Water up to our Chins, wading near 250 or 300 Yards to the highest Ground, in order to preserve our Lives, which under the provident Care of Almighty God, was most fortunately effected.

Mr. Cornell's Damage is also very considerable, his Brig, Wharf, Warehouse, Dwelling-house, Cellar, and their Contents, were washed away; his dry Goods Store, which stood on high Ground, much damaged, and many Goods washed away.

A whaling Schooner is come into Old Topfall-Inlet, the Master of which saith, he saw the Hulks of several square rigged and other Vessels adrift at Sea; also a Brig belonging to Norfolk, in Virginia, laden with Rum, from one of the Islands, on Shore to the Southward of the said Inlet, the People were all saved, and about 50 Hogheads of Rum; much damage is also done to the Town of Beaufort, situate in the same Inlet; it is said not above four or five Houses are left standing; the Trees in Orchards, and the Woods, are torn up by the Roots in a surprising Manner, and their Number incredible.

OCTOBER 16. Last Sunday week the Earl of Halifax Packet, Captain Boulton, failed from hence with the mail for Falmouth. In said vessel went passengers, Charles Stewart, Esq; Philip Livingston, jun. Esq; Major Chiffolin, J. Taylor, Esq; Thomas Hunt, Esq; and Thomas Cuffins, Esq.

OCTOBER 19. We hear from St. Augustine, that one Harrison, a Mason, who some Time ago worked in this City, was lately executed there for the Murder of his Wife and Child. She was a Woman of a very good Character, well respected, and shown here for an excellent Cook: Her Husband having settled in Augustine, she, accompanied with his Brother, a few months ago went to him. He being familiar with another Woman, and denying his Wife, she proved her Marriage by the Oath of his Brother, on which he was obliged by the Governor to receive her as his Wife, and soon after perpetrated the Crime for which he suffered.

Mr. Holt,
As you have been particularly careful to insert such pieces in your very useful paper, as tend not alone to give the Americans a proper idea of their precious Liberty; but also to counteract the daring invasion of that Liberty, by a C—t M—y, therefore if you judge the following method of evading the payment of the duties on paint, will be of service to the public, you are welcome to insert it in your next, as communicated to me by a gentleman of credit, in a neighbouring province, who had all his houses and out-houses painted with the following cheap colour, and found it to answer well. If so, may it ever be called Liberty Colour.

To every Gallon of clear Train Oil, add one Pound of Litharge, boil it well in a brass or copper kettle, by a slow fire, and in an open place, left by running over it catch fire and endanger the house, stir it continually and scum it clean, after some time boiling, it will lose all its smell and become fit, when cold, to be used as linseed Oil, mix whitening (which is only chalk and on which is no duty) with the above Oil, and bring it to a light or dark lead colour by lampblack.—When white or red lead may be had of American manufactory, which I have reason to hope will soon be, by mixing it with the above it must prove of advantage.

For the method of rendering train Oil as sweet as olive Oil, see Annual Register for 1761, and 1762.

I am, Sir, Your constant Reader,
S. M.
OCTOBER 26. His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor has by Proclamation, prorogued the General Assembly of this Province, to the 21st of November next.

On a Review of the Boston News-Papers, it appears to several impartial Persons, that the people of the Massachusetts-Bay are not in general such true hearted patriots as they pretend, or else that the Sons of Liberty have less influence there than in the other capitals of America; it seems that Mr. JOHN MEIN, a Printer of a Paper called the Boston Chronicle, has for several weeks openly bid defiance to the Committee of Merchants, and in his Paper continually opposed, vilified, aspersed, calumniated, defamed to, and hectoring the Non-Importers;—and for which he must have a number of abettors, seeing so many continue to take his Paper, as enables him to continue; whereas had any Printer in New-York dared to say half as much, he would not had as many customers left as would have saved him from destruction: Happy is it for Mr. Mein, that he does not reside in New-York, or he would long ago have met with a suitable reward.—There are but three open importers now left in Boston, of which, Mr. Mein is one, and what must make his conduct the more ungrateful is, that he came a stranger among them but a few years ago, and has met with greater encouragement than any of the natives, tho' his Paper, notwithstanding the most pompous pretensions, is but a Mean one, at the same time he is insolently flying in the face, and running directly counter to the sense of every real patriot on this continent.

NEW-HAVEN, (Connecticut) OCTOBER 13.
This day the General Assembly of this Colony, elected the Honourable Jonathan Trumbull, Esq; Governor of the Colony, in the Room of the Honourable William Pitkin, Esq; deceased; and the Honourable Matthew Griswold, Esq; Deputy-Governor, in the Room of Deputy-Governor Trumbull, promoted.

SAVANNAH, (in Georgia) October 25. The ship Diamond, Capt. Hill, which put in here leaky the 26th of last month from the Bay of Honduras, having been repaired, sailed again from Tybee the 9th instant for London.

There is no truth in the report of three vessels being ashore at Cumberland island, as formerly mentioned.

CHARLES-TOWN, NOVEMBER 21.
ALL the small Vessels which were employed to carry the 21st Regiment to St. Augustine, arrived there safe, except the Schooner Hawke, Captain Thompson, who was lost on a Bank about 16 Leagues this Side of that Port, but the People saved; and since our last the said Vessels have returned here, with the 9th Regiment, which embarked immediately on board the Transports destined to carry them to Corke, without landing here.

The General Committee meets this Day at Mr. Dillon's, and are to meet on Tuesday in every Week.

TUESDAY, November 21, 1769. No. 207. [Printed by C. CROUCH, in Elliott-street.]

B O S T O N.

Meeting of the Town of Boston, legally assembled, on Wednesday, October the 24th, and thence continued by Adjournment to Wednesday, October 18, 1769.

RESOLVED,

THAT the Letters and Memorials of Governor Bernard, and the Commissioners of the Customs in America, transmitted by them respectively to his Majesty's Ministers, and laid before the Parliament of Great-Britain, authentic Copies of which are now before this Town; had a Tendency to deceive the Ministry, and lead them unavoidably to misinform his Majesty, with regard to the Affections and Loyalty of his American Subjects in general: And that the said Governor Bernard and the Commissioners have particularly, in their Letters and Memorials before-mentioned, discovered an implacable Enmity to this Town, and the most virulent Endeavours to traduce it even to his Majesty himself; by Means whereof the Inhabitants very sensibly feel the Displeasure of their Gracious Sovereign.

RESOLVED, That this Town have Reason to rejoice in the Measure taken by the Honourable House of Representatives; in the last Session of the General Assembly; by so seasonably preferring their Dutiful and Loyal Petition to his Majesty, for the Removal of Governor Bernard for ever from the Government of this Province: And the Town take this Opportunity to express their most ardent Wish, that the Prayer of said Petition to his Majesty may be graciously heard and granted.

RESOLVED, That General Gage and Commodore Hood in their several Letters to his Majesty's Ministers and Servants, authentic Copies of which are now before this Town, have discovered an unreasonable Prejudice against the Town. And the Town in particular, in declaring in his Letter to the Right Hon. Earl of Hillsborough, one of his Majesty's Secretaries of State; that "in Truth there was very little Government in Boston; and in making Use of other Expressions alike severe, has done great Injury to the Town, and an irreparable Injury. And it is more the Opinion of the Town, that the Readiness he has discovered to receive unfavourable Impressions of it, and the public Testimony he was prevailed upon to bear against it, before he could have Time to make an impartial Enquiry, betrayed a want of Candour, unbecoming his Station and Character.

RESOLVED, That many of the Letters and Memorials afore-mentioned are false, scandalous, and infamous Libels upon the Inhabitants of this Town, Province and Continent, of the most virulent and malicious, as well as dangerous and pernicious Tendency: And that the Selectmen be and hereby are directed to apply and complain to proper Authority, that the wicked Authors of those incendiary Libels, may be proceeded with according to Law, and brought to condign Punishment.

B O S T O N, OCTOBER 26.

Yesterday our most gracious Sovereign King GEORGE the Third entered the Tenth Year of his Reign: On this Anniversary of his Majesty's Accession to the Throne the Guns at Castle-William and at the Batteries in this Town were fired at Noon: His Majesty's 14th and 29th Regiments were on the Common at the same Time, and each fired three Volleys: On this Occasion also the Company of the Train of Artillery belonging to the Regiment of Militia in this Town mustered on their Parade, and fired a Royal Salute; after which the said Company went through their Evolutions and Firings, in order to compleat the Times required by Law for Trainings: Their Performances were to great Acclamation.

At One o'Clock his Majesty's Ship Rose in this Harbour fired on the Occasion. John Hancock, and Thomas Brattle, Esqrs. returned the Beginning of this Week from Philadelphia.

On Monday last departed this Life Capt. Daniel Malcolm, of this Town, Merchant, in the 44th Year of his Age.

Yesterday Morning Capt. Lyde sailed for London; as did also Capt. Bryant in the Afternoon; and Yesterday Capt. Brown, in Capt. Bryant went Passengers, Samuel Venner, Esq; and Family, and Mr. Patrick Smith, the Factor who brought some Goods here from London, but afterwards agreed with the Merchants to return with his Goods, on their paying his Passage, and the Freight and Insurance of the Goods home, which was complied with.

OCTOBER 30. By the last Accounts from London it was generally thought that the 14 or 1500 Guineas thrown away by the Wifes in the purchase, equipment, and other extravagant expences of the Sloop Liberty, fitted out for certain purposes, and above that of giving good Bread to some convenient people, together with more than £. 700 sterling expence of a fine barge and ten or a dozen men in livery to catch tom-cod for their honours, and the pretty sums charged on the revenue for presents to Capt. Corner, for his great zeal and cheerful attendance upon their flight to Castle-William, with many other considerable articles, will be charged back upon their High Mightinesses, when the Lords of the Treasury shall receive the account of expences that has attended this famous American Board; and such account, it was publicly said, had never been sent home. Among other extraordinary articles, 'twas said that Capt. Corner had more than £. 100 sterling given him out of the Revenue Chest for labour done by the King's men of his Majesty's Ship Romney in fitting the said Sloop to sea, which labour would hardly have been done by the tradesmen of the country for less than a tenth part of the money. These weighty expences, added to some others that attended the malicious, but fruitless prosecution of Mr. Hancock, &c. by order of the aforesaid Wifes, may be matter of enquiry at Whitehall the ensuing winter.

On Friday last were interred the Remains of Capt. Daniel Malcolm, of this Town, Merchant, who died a few Days before; in the 44th Year of his Age. By Means of his honest Industry, he left his Family in good Circumstances. And though this Gentleman was one whom the Nettlesham Baronet had stigmatised in his infamous Letters, his Funeral was attended by a long Train of his Fellow-Citizens, as a Token of Respect to the Family of one who in his Life was zealously attached to the Liberties of his Country.

One Day last Week the Committee of Inspection were told that certain unallowed Articles of British Goods were brought here from New-York by the Way of Casco-Bay. They applied to Capt. Cox, the Master of the Vessel, who informed them that the Goods had been shipped from New-York to Falmouth in Casco-Bay, but the Inhabitants there, upon hearing of it would not suffer them to be sold. Capt. Cox further says that the Owner applied to him, and made him offers of a handsome Reward if he would bring him and his Goods to Marblehead or Boston; but he refused, though they were brought down to the Vessel, disdaining to act a Part so inimical to his country. The Man it is said is gone with his Goods into the Indian Country.

The Chest of Tea mentioned in our last to be returned from Marblehead, we are credibly informed, has since found its Way over to Malden; from whence we hear it was transported to Marblehead early last Saturday Morning, by an Hiring of the Person who formerly carried the same; but whether as Bread or Tea, our worthy Friends at Marblehead will probably give a good Account.

Yesterday last Mr. Robert Pierpoint, and several other Inhabitants at the South Part of the Town, made Complaint to a Magistrate, that they had been greatly abused, the preceding Night, and that Morning, by some of the Guard at the Fortification; likewise that when the Guards were relieved, on their March one of the Soldiers took his Firelock off his Shoulder, and fired it; and had not another Soldier with his Bayonet knocked up the Muzzle, the Bullet which was discharged would have gone among a Number of Persons that were very near standing at a Blacksmith's Shop, but providentially the Bullet entered the upper Part of the Shop, and hurt no Person. Their Matters have since been examined by the Magistrate, and some of the Persons concerned bound to appear at the next Court of Assize to answer for their Misdemeanors.

Last Saturday Afternoon, as Mr. John Mein, Publisher of the Boston Chronicle, was returning from his Shop in King-street, some Gentlemen then upon Change, who thought themselves ill-treated in a late Publication of his took Occasion to "catechise" him; upon which, after a few Words had passed between them, he drew a Pistol out of his Pocket, and threatened to fire if they did not stand off; but that was so far from intimidating them, that they followed close up in order to seize him, and he apprehending some Danger to himself from the Repentment of the People, who began to collect together pretty fast, precipitately retreated to the Main Guard, which was near, with the Pistol in his Hand, where, as soon as he entered the Door, he discharged it at random among those who closely followed him (though without doing any other Damage than wounding the Sleeve of the Coat of a Grenadier who was upon Guard) and then immediately took Shelter in the House under the Protection of the Military Conservators of the Peace: Application was soon after made to Mr. Justice Dana, and a Warrant issued for apprehending him, in order to answer for this atrocious Offence; but though search was made in the Guard-House and other Places, by the proper Civil Officers to whom the Warrant was committed, they have not yet been able to serve it upon him.

The same Afternoon, a Person who had lately belonged to the Sloop Liberty, and came round to this Place in the Sloop Success, from Rhode-Island, and soon after his Arrival informed of her having a Cask or two of Wine on board, which occasioned the Vessel's being seized, was discovered and pursued, but took Shelter in a House where he secreted himself till the beginning of the Evening, when thinking the Coast clear he ventured out, but the Avenues to the House being strictly watched the whole of the Time, he was immediately seized upon by the Police, and soon placed in a Cart, his Jacket and Shirt taken off, and his naked Skin well tarred and feathered; they obliged him to hold a large Glass Lanthorn in his Hand that People might see the doleful Condition he was in, and to deter others from such infamous Practices: He was then carted from the Town-House through the main Street up to Liberty Tree, amidst a vast Concurrence of People, where he was made to swear never to be guilty of the like Crime for the future; but in their going thither, as they passed Mein and Fleming's Printing-Office a Gun was fired from thence and two others snapped at them just as they got by, upon which some of the Company rushed into the Office in order to secure the Offenders, but they had fled; however they brought off three Guns, two of them well charged; as Evidences against them whenever they can be taken: This imprudent Conduct of those in the Printing-Office (for what Reason we know not, as no Injury seemed designed them) did not interrupt the carting the feathered Informer through the principal Streets in Town for about three Hours, when he was brought back to King-street, and after renewing his Obligation of behaving better for time to come, and asking Pardon for his past Offence, he was dismissed without further Damage, after having his Cloaths returned him again; and then all peaceably dispersed about nine o'Clock.

Numbers of People, perhaps some Thousands, were gathered together, and they ordered the Inhabitants to put Lights in their Windows, as they passed, which in general was complied with. Upon proper Notice to the Commanding Officer of his Majesty's Forces in the Town, Orders were issued, and the Men were all in Arms at the several Barracks and Guard Houses. His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor met with such of his Majesty's Council as were in Town; and as many of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace as could be conveniently convened at the Council Chamber, but soon after the Tumult gradually subsided, the People dispersed, and before Nine o'Clock the Town was perfectly quiet. We hear that the Persons principally concerned in carting the Informer as before related, would not have engaged in it on a Saturday Evening, if a Question had not been started, whether the Man could legally be kept in Custody till Monday.

A certain Gentleman at a late Convocation, was heard to say, that if the Pageantry usually made on the Fifth of November, was not an actual Breach of the Peace, it had a Tendency to it, and therefore he should publicly bear his Testimony against it; but if his W---p was not totally ignorant of the high-handed Offences that have been almost daily committed, since the Troops arrived in Town, for the Support of Government; yet he did not think proper to mention one Word on that Head. It is hoped however, that the Union still subsists, and that the Disorders so much feared by some, the great Danger of which has occasioned such extraordinary Precaution at this Time, will not happen—as it is certain they have not, for some Years past, notwithstanding what is publicly insinuated to the contrary. The Inhabitants, it may be depended upon, will be ready to assist the Justices of the Town of Boston, whenever they shall think proper, jointly or separately, to call upon them, to suppress Disorders of ANY KIND whatsoever, and we have Reason to expect, that the J---es of the S---f C--- will for the future countenance those inferior Magistrates, some of whom, to their Honour be it said, are vigilant, active and intrepid in the execution of their important Trust.

Extract of a Letter.

"The dispute at Newport about the Importation runs high. Nothing is yet agreed to by the Merchants. However, the arrival of a vessel now daily expected with goods I believe will settle the matter. By the best judgment I can form they will not suffer them to be landed! Though they have too long neglected this matter, they have been pretty unanimous in disputing the Fees with their Collector, &c. That they have been very busy in killing Fishes, while they should have been destroying Wolves and Tigers!"

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman, of Note in a neighbouring Province, dated October 11, 1769.

"The Patriotism of Boston will be revered through every Age in which the least Spark of Liberty remains: Every Effort they make is attended with Honour. The Sons of Tyranny fly before them. The being enrolled with Infamy, however some may effect to despise it, carries a deadly Sting to Family Honours. They feel and tremble at what Posterity shall say of them. They know it will be felt by their Children's Children for ever. A H---n cannot bear the Thought. The young and tender Willows, though covered and overspread by their lofty Sires, became suppliant, crouch and sawn."

LEASES and Releases, Blank Bonds, Bonds with Warrants to confess Judgment, Mortgages, Copies of Writs, Bills of Sale, Powers of Attorney, Servants and Apprentices Indentures, Bills of Lading, Indico Certificates of both Kinds, Shipping Papers, Warrants and Executions for small Debts, Recognizance for the Peace, Writs of Fieri Facias, in Actions of Debt, and on the Case, Capias in Debt, ditto in Case, and sundry other Blanks, to be sold by Charles Crouch, at his Printing-Office in Elliott-street.
